'T WAS NO RED NIGHT OF ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S

The "Black Hundred" at Whose Name the Russian Capital Trembled did not Appear

There is Further Reassurance in the Statement that the Supposed Murderous Organization is a Myth. The Priests Will Plead for Peace Today.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—The groundless nature of the alarmist reports that a St. Bartholomew massacre would take place last night was demonstrated when the hours passed without the slightest development of a mob spirit. Prince Lavoff, the Moscow zemstvoist and one of the leaders of the constitutional democrats, has issued a reassuring announcement declaring that the rumors of an organized "black hundred" were almost entirely myths.

In an effort to pacify the country and end the fratricidal strife Count Witte has enlisted the aid of the church and the holy synod, which is now under the direction of Prince Alexia Obolensky, has issued an encyclical which will be read in all churches of the empire in place of the usual Sunday sermon. It reminds the Russians that wrath and hatred often change the nature of men and make them like wild beasts.

THE CRONSTADT AFFAIR.

The Sailors Had Ground for Discontent.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—The admiral's declaration that the report that the crews of the Russian battleships Slava and Alexander II, now at Cronstadt, mutinied, is untrue. Vice Admiral Birleff, minister of marine, while admitting that a deplorable state of discontent exists among sailors, attributes the Cronstadt trouble to the mutiny at Libau. He freely admits, however, that the sailors have many just grievances, an investigation showing that the government contractors have robbed the government and furnished the crews with food unfit to eat.

An independent investigation seems to confirm the report that the navy officials at Cronstadt acted disgracefully. Most of them fled for their lives from the wrath of the sailors. The commander of the seventh equipage committed suicide when the outbreak occurred.

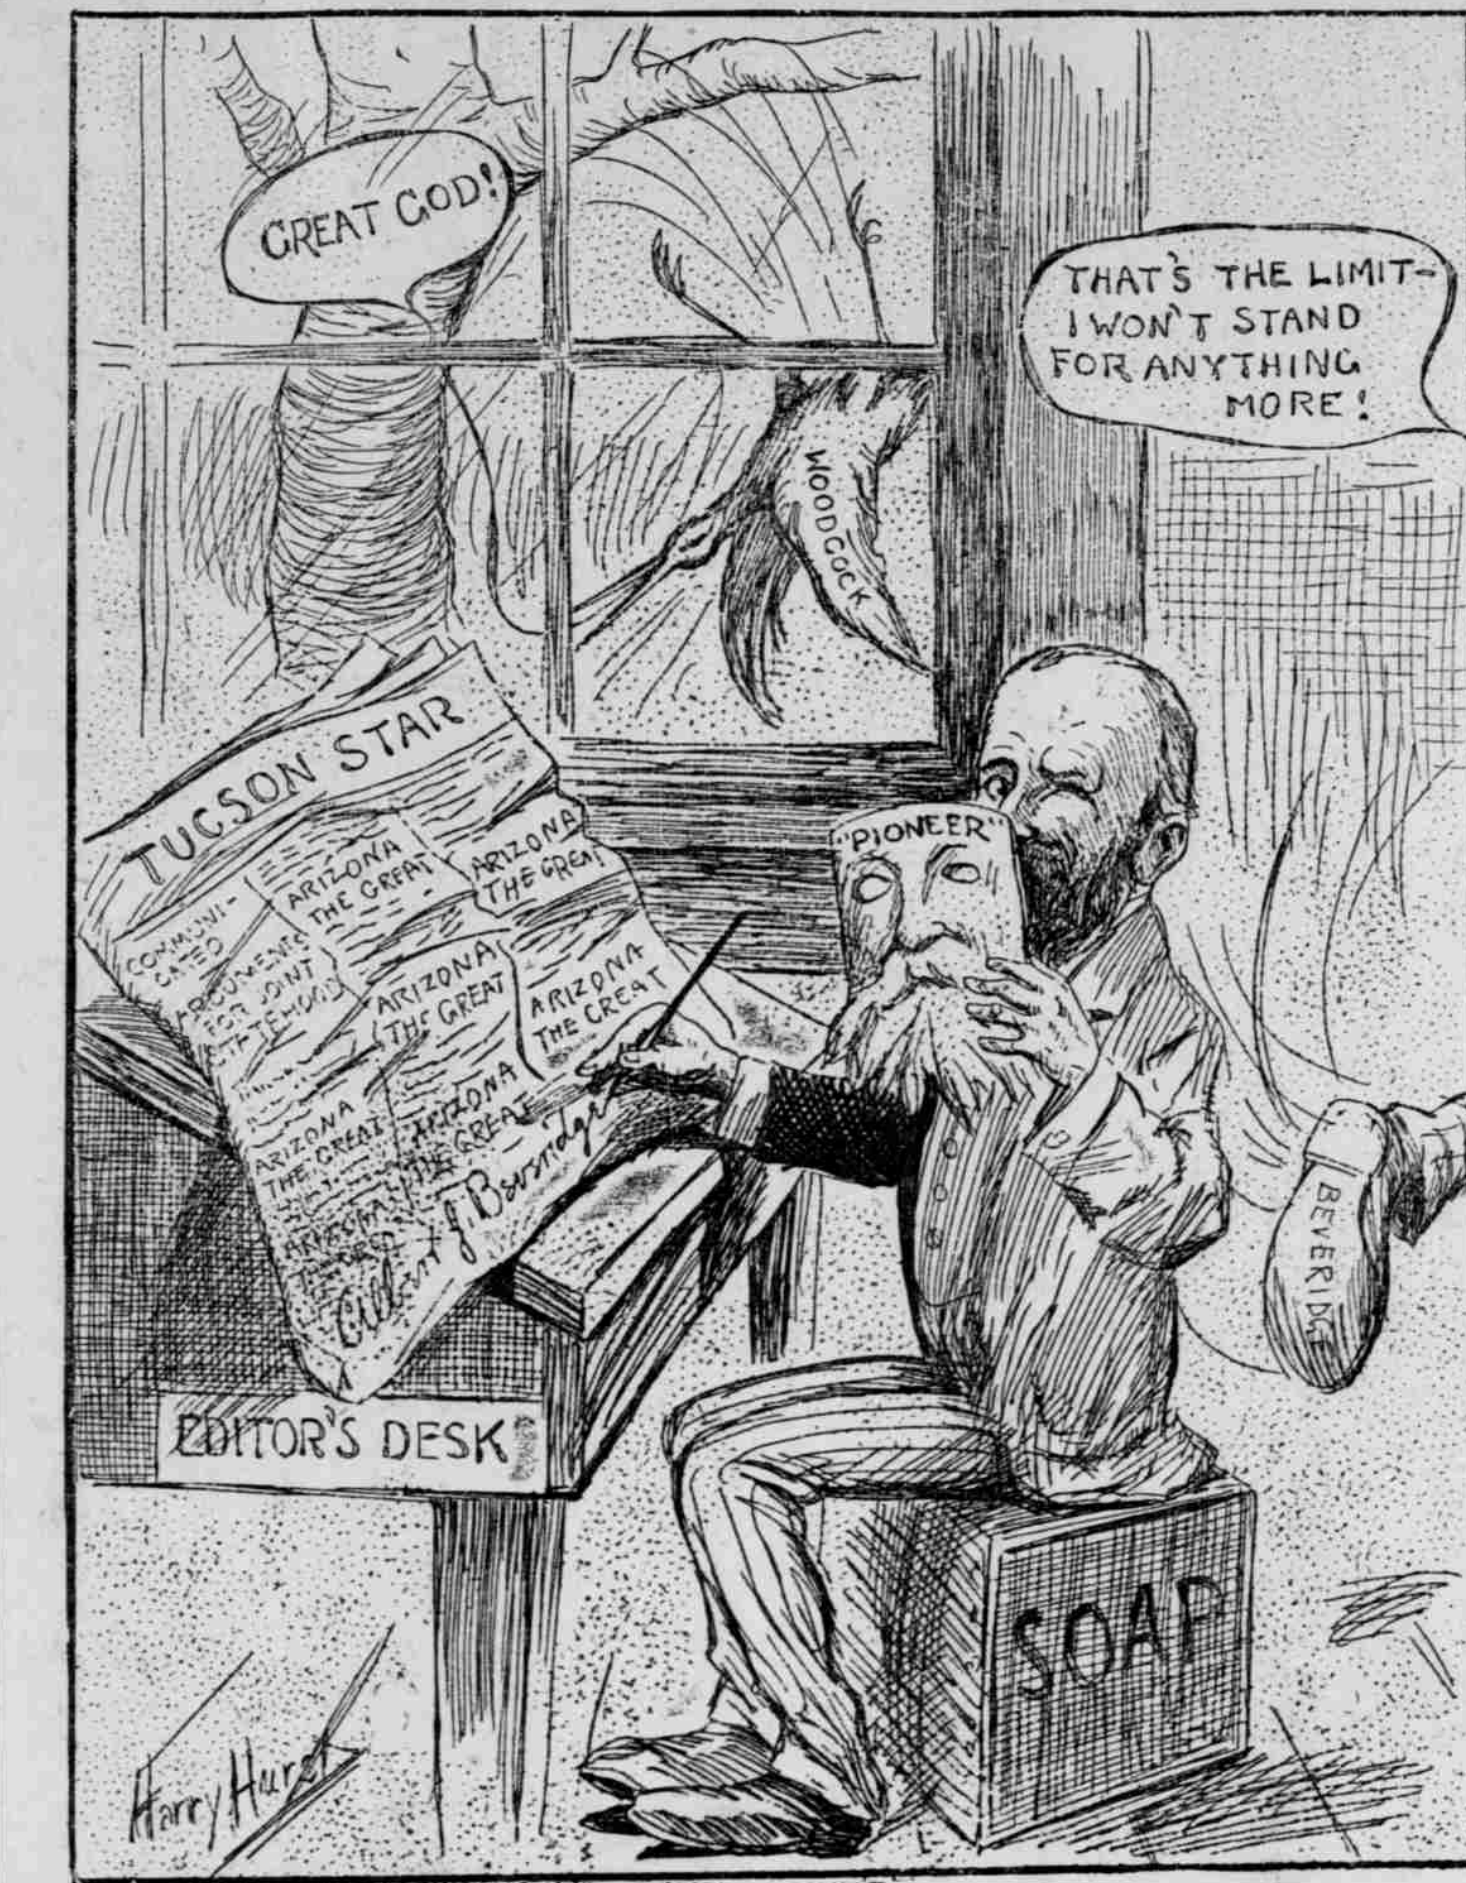

MUTINY OF JAILBIRDS.

Odessa, Nov. 11.—Prisoners in the jail at Kishineff, Bessarabia, revolted in a body last night demanding their freedom. On the request being refused the prisoners set fire to the jail. Troops hurried to the scene and fired a volley into the mutineers, killing twenty-two and wounding many.

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS.

To Grow Out of the Enterprise National Bank Failure.

Pittsburg, Nov. 11.—Attorney John Marmon, representing the depositors of the defunct Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny, said today that criminal action will be taken against certain people connected with the bank's failure within seventy-two hours. He said that much of the seeming mystery surrounding the failure had been cleared up and that it would be only a short time when the public would be given the name of those implicated in the collapse of the bank.

Democrats Got Only the Ohio Governorship

Both Parties Claim the Legislature, but Either way the Majority Will be Small.

Columbus, O., Nov. 11.—Today's developments have cleared up the post-election situation in Ohio considerably. Practically complete returns on the entire state ticket show that all the republican candidates except for governor have been elected by substantial pluralities. The figures given out by Chairman Dick show a range from 27,000 plurality on lieutenant governor to 23,000 on state treasurer. Houck, the democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, before leaving for his home at Mount Vernon tonight, admitted his defeat. Chairman Garber of the democratic state committee was expected to give out a statement tonight but did not.

Both parties continue to claim a majority in both branches of the legislature. The majority in either branch will be very small, probably not more than two or three for the party that controls.

IDAHO EARTHQUAKE.

Salt Lake, Nov. 11.—An earthquake shock passing from south to north was felt in Utah and Idaho points this afternoon. The greatest disturbance, however, was at Shoshone, Idaho, where two shocks followed each other in rapid succession at 8:45 this evening.

BOSTON SHOCKED BY A DISCOVERY

Growing out of the Death of the Chorus Girl.

Boston, Nov. 11.—Twenty detectives headed by Police Captains Jos. Dugan and Lawrence, made a sensational descent this afternoon on five offices on Tremont street, where it is alleged illegal operations have been performed on an extensive scale and, though the raids did not result in any arrests, the police found considerable matter which they think will aid them in the future. In each place a photograph was taken of the rooms and of the instruments found. Hundreds of people blocked traffic on Tremont street during the raids and for hours afterward, the popular impression being that another girl had met her death in one of the hospitals and that the police had caught the criminals.

The action of the police today was the result of disclosures which have come to light recently in connection with the death of Susan Geary, the victim of the suit case tragedy, whose death followed an illegal operation alleged to have been performed in the office of Mrs. Dr. Jane Bishop, and the more recent operation performed on Lola Reed, a fifteen year old girl of West Newfield, Maine.

Although only five place were entered by the police today, the work will be continued next week, the authorities having information in their possession indicating that the business is conducted on such a large scale that it has become alarming. Their information also indicates that this city has become headquarters for these illegal practitioners, who bring their patients here from all parts of the country.

The raids were determined upon early in the day and it was planned to visit the establishments of Doctors Putler, Emmons, Williams, Amer and Bishop. The three last named are women physicians. The twenty officers received their instructions at police station No. 41 and, accompanied by photographers and police surgeons, they were sent away in squads of four shortly before 2 o'clock. The officers timed their arrival so that each of five would be entered exactly at the same time, thereby preventing any warning being telephoned from one place to another.

It is the belief of the police that there is a syndicate in operation here, and that several of the offices are used for the patients at various times in order to confuse them as to the location of the office where the operating is done. Dr. Henry C. Williams, one of the physicians who accompanied the police, made an examination of the instruments found in one of the institutions and said that he was not surprised that death followed some of the operations. "Some of these," he said, exhibiting several surgical instruments, "are veritable instruments of torture and from their appearance, I should judge that they had little care."

MADE BATTLE OF FOOTBALL

Pennsylvania Defeated Harvard in Fierce Game

The Willy Carlisle Indians Overcame West Point—Yale's Hard Earned Score Against Brown.

Philadelphia, Nov. 11.—Pennsylvania today defeated Harvard in one of the fiercest gridiron battles ever witnessed on the Franklin field. The final score was 12 to 6. Both elevens scored a touchdown and kicked the goals in the first half and the Quaker eleven added a second touchdown in the second half.

It is a peculiar coincidence that Lamson, the player over whom there has been so much contention, should have scored both touchdowns for the Pennsylvania eleven. That there was ill feeling between the players of the two elevens was made apparent early in the first half, when Parker, the Crimson center, was disqualified for slugging and again in the second half, when Sheble was sent to the club-house for a like offense.

Both touchdowns in the first half were due to luck. The numerous changes in the Harvard line up attest the fierceness with which the Pennsylvania players went into the play. Five men were so badly weakened that they were sent to the side lines. The Pennsylvania line up remained intact, however. There was probably never a football game played in which there was such a difference in the two halves. In the first half Harvard completely outplayed Pennsylvania and gained ground almost at will, while in the second half the Crimson players made only one touchdown. Both their offense and defense weakened perceptibly as the game progressed, while Pennsylvania's attack and defense improved fifty per cent. This was probably due to the superb condition of the Quaker eleven.

The particular star on the Franklin field today was little Levine, Pennsylvania's left end. It is no exaggeration to state that he played the most remarkable game of football ever witnessed in this city. The day was perfect for football. The crowd was the largest that ever witnessed a game of football in Philadelphia. Not one of the 22,000 odd seats was vacant when the play began and there were probably 2,000 persons standing around the gridiron.

CARLISLE BEATS CADETS.

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Failure to kick a goal caused West Point to lose to Carlisle today. The score was 6 to 5 in the Indians' favor and the goal, which would have tied the score, was missed by less than six inches.

Prince Louis of Battenberg was a spectator of the game. He watched it intently throughout, seldom taking his gaze off the players. Two entirely different types of football players were pitted against each other, the Indians using trick plays throughout the game and the army eleven relying on its superior physical strength to crush its way to the goal line, but the team scored only once by its distinctive style of playing. The Indians, after long, patient waiting, picked up a fumble and raced with it over West Point's goal and then the army players, goaded on by prospective defeat, pushed their way across 100 yards of gridiron for their score.

YALE AND BROWN.

New Haven, Nov. 11.—In a game full of sensational play, Yale defeated Brown university today by a score of 11 to 0. Not until well through the second half did the Yale supporters feel certain that Brown would not score a touchdown, and early in the game they even had quakings lest the visitors turn the tables and win out, because of the strength the visitors showed in rushing the ball.

THE PRINCE'S DAY.

A Journey on the Hudson to West Point.

New York, Nov. 11.—Prince Louis of Battenberg, accompanied by many officers of his squadron and of Rear Admiral Evans' fleet, visited the military academy at West Point today, going up the Hudson on the steamer Chas. W. Morse.

Tonight the prince was the personal guest of Col. Robert M. Thompson, president of the Naval Academy Alumni association.

CHINESE MINISTER EXPLAINS BOYCOTT

The Responsibility for it Placed Upon the United States.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—At the banquet of the Chicago Merchants club tonight Sir Chenung Liang Cheng, the Chinese minister, was the guest of honor and delivered the principal address of the evening. He chose for the subject for his speech, "Commercial Possibilities Between the United States and China."

The speaker while addressing his hearers in the most courteous manner, and frequently evoking their applause, laid indirectly at the door of the United States itself the responsibility for the boycott recently instituted in China against American goods.

He asserted that the numerous cases of hardship and unjust treatment which had been imposed by overzealous American officials upon exempt classes had so worked upon the feelings of the Chinese nation that the regrettable boycott had followed. Sir Shantung was heard with the greatest interest by the large number of business men who were around the banquet board and his address was loudly applauded.

UNCOVERING MORE FRAUD

Help Needed in the Prosecution

It is also Discovered that much Irregularity in New York was the Result of Ignorance.

New York, Nov. 11.—Attorney General Mayer announced tonight that cases of illegal acts in the recent election had been reported to both his and Superintendent Morgan's offices in such number that he has appointed Jay S. Jones of Brooklyn and James S. Lehman of New York as special deputy attorney generals to assist the regular staff in the investigation and prosecution of the election cases reported. Neither the attorney general nor Superintendent Morgan would discuss the situation tonight. It is learned, however, that as a result of the investigation tonight, evidence had been procured that would be taken to the grand jury next week.

The investigation so far has resulted in revelations of the most sensational character as to the ignorance and incompetency of the election inspectors. It is the opinion of all state officials that the irregularities developed were not so much of fraud as of pure and simple ignorance.

It was learned today that the ballot box found in the barber shop in the twenty-first assembly district was only for mutilated ballots, and the report of the canvass shows that ten defective ballots were recorded the same number that was found in the box. Another similar box was found today at a polling place on West Thirty-eighth street.

Governor Higgins today informed a Hearst messenger that when the request for the use of armories to hold the ballot boxes of New York comes through the proper channels, namely, the commander of the New York National Guard, he will grant it. He will not order out the troops to protect the boxes however.
